

Dear FCC, I was VERY upset to hear that DO NOT CALL LAW may be overturned. I was thankful when it was put in place. It saved me numerous times of answering the phone to persistent telemarketers. I did not appreciate being subjected to constantly being solicited at home. I was happy when the law came about and quickly added my name to the list. Please do not submit me and others to these calls again. Thank you, Gwyn Hurd